MOTORS LIQUIDATION COMPANY, et al., : 09-50026 (REG)
f/k/a General Motors Corp., et al. : More information on exch. 7b, 7a
Debtors. : (Jointly Administered)

My dear Judge,

this letter is about a "duplication", of which I am accused by the GM debtors.

I, Helga Harm, was a Medical Researcher, now retired for more than 20 years and widowed for 13 years. My home is in my Forest Land on Orcas Island North of Seattle, WA.

My Social Security needs additional fixed income, so I decided to stay with Commercial bonds, even if they were uninsured. I trusted GM, I had several GM cars during my lifetime (Electra cabrio, Olds 98 and Cadillac Ciera/S, the latter I still own).

On 11-19-03 accd. 10-18-04 (exch. 1a, 1b)
I bought 7 bonds each. Several years later the Charles Schwab Co. informed me, that GM was now in bankruptcy - and shortly thereafter a group of attorneys in Portland, OR, sent paperwork on 1-28-2009 (exch. 2a or 2c)

to fill out. They would take care of the uninsured bondholders, but I never could reach them by telephone. Nothing happened!

On 9-10-2009 (exch. 3a ~ 3c)

The Garden City Group in Dublin, Ohio, also sent some paperwork, including a page with the headline:

"United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District for New York (end. 4) This paper had to be returned in an envelope, which I had to provide (end. 5). When the paper returned to my home, strangely enough the Seal on 10-5-2009, it was not by the Court, it was reading in REI; "The Garden City Group". The envelope was postmarked in Columbus, Ohio (end. 5).

I was under the assumption, that the Portland, OR, Group was no longer involved — so I let it be. But for my astonishment the Portland Group sent me as a bondholder a check for $ 96.00 on 5-14-10 (end. 6)

I travel very often, and when coming back home in frequent on 8-18-10 (end. 7a or 7c)

there was an "objection" by the debtors: "There was a duplicate". This now came from a New York group of attorneys, which wrote: "my proof of claim and legal rights will be affected".

And even worse they said, if that would not go their way, there were other grounds to "object".

In a few days (on 9-16-2010) I will leaving again for a longer trip with the Holland-America-Line and return after Thanksgiving.

I hope, that I provided all, what is necessary to understand the situation from my side.

Very truly yours,

Helga Hause

The attached check is being issued to you pursuant to the terms of the Settlement obtained in the class action entitled In re General Motors Corp. Securities, U.S. District Court for the E.D. Mich., MDL No. 1719, Master Case No. 06-md-1749. The claim you submitted in connection with this Settlement was determined by the Claims Administrator to be timely and valid and eligible for a distribution from the Settlement proceeds. The amount of the attached distribution represents your pro-rata share of the initial distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, and was calculated by the Claims Administrator pursuant to the Notice of Proposed Settlement of this action and the Proof of Claim and Release form that you submitted, and in accordance with the Court-approved Plan of Allocation.

Over 425,000 claims were processed, with accepted claims representing aggregate Net Recognized Losses under the Plan of Allocation of approximately $1.8 billion. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated April 20, 2010, this distribution is based on 90% of the available balance of the Net Settlement Fund, which is approximately $230 million. Accordingly, each Claimant is being paid a pro-rata share of the available funds, which the Claims Administrator calculated, pursuant to the terms of the Plan of Allocation, by dividing each Claimant's Recognized Loss by the total Recognized Losses of all Claimants, and then multiplying the result by the amount of the available funds. In this initial distribution, each Authorized Claimant is receiving approximately 12.74% of his, her, or its Recognized Loss. The remaining balance of the Net Settlement Fund will be distributed to eligible claimants in a second distribution.

Please note that this payment is a distribution from a "qualified settlement fund," as defined in Code of Federal Regulations Sections 1.468B-1-5. IRS regulations provide in part that whether a distribution from a qualified settlement fund "is includable in the claimant's gross income is generally determined by reference to the claim in respect of which the distribution is made and as if the distribution were made directly by the transferor." The tax treatment of this distribution varies based upon the individual circumstances and tax status of each Claimant. Accordingly, neither Plaintiffs' Counsel nor the Claims Administrator is able to determine the appropriate tax treatment for any Claimant. You should consult with your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences, if any, that the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund may have to you.

If you do not agree with the calculation of your claim, your disagreement/objection must be made in writing, signed, addressed to the above, and postmarked no later than twenty (20) days from the date of this letter. You must reference your claim number and detail the disagreement; your claim will then be re-evaluated by the Claims Administrator to determine if there is any validity to your arguments or any additional loss, and you will be notified in writing of the outcome. If you do not make and serve your objection in the manner described, you shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the amount of your distribution.

If you have any questions about your payment award, please contact the Claims Administrator at the address or telephone number(s) noted above.
